

U. S.

York—Morris ner and ll of Au-

Newport eray and both of ewster at lla—Corp.

outh La-

LD
peline,
about a o United

P HEN
MS

Healy chapel.

MISS MARION STROSSMAN

Funeral services for the late Miss Marlon R. Strossman, east side school teacher who died yesterday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Healy chapel, the Rev. Henry Clay Miller officiating. Burial will be in Spring Lake cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel.

MRS. GRACE HATHAWAY

Mrs. Grace Hathaway, 333 Illinois avenue, died this morning at Copley hospital.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. V. S. Blair of Aurora, and a sister, Mrs. K. L. Burns of Watertown, Wis.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

* GEORGE B. BREWER

George B. Brewer, 65, formerly of Aurora, died today at his home in Batavia. He was born April 15, 1880, at Clarinda, Ia.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

MRS. EVA GRIMES

Friends who know and loved friendly Mrs. Eva Grimes, will be sad to learn of her passing away on October 8 at Poplar Bluffs, Mo. She had moved there to be near her son. She was greatly missed after she left Aurora and despite her age still carried on her little business while in Poplar Bluffs. Wherever you saw Mrs. Grimes she had a smile and she loved people who were happy.

MRS. EMMA HUBBELL

Mrs. Emma F. Hubbell, 65, died this morning at her home, 131 North Fourth street. She was born Jan. 22, 1880, at Michigan City, Ind., and was a member of the First Congregational church.

Mrs. Hubbell is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Helen Conner and Miss Florence Hubbell of Aurora, Mrs. Bernice Stone of California, and Mrs.

since Saturday received a blo playing football college.

Letters Mr Andrew J. Ca that he ha anonymous that all such discarded in basket. "No "will be paid ters sent to city officials.

Girl Is Ff iger, a Bat $5 and costs last night L. M. Ochs her arrest o derly condu McGath, who ed her com boys, for th window in home on So day night, O

Fire Loss $100 damage apparently i broke out at an automobi at 218 Blev of the car, a not identifie 5, directed b Kinney, ans