

non Victor and Richard William; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Halsey of Aurora, and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hjelmberg of Elburn.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Conley funeral home, Elburn, the Rev. Charles Sites, pastor of the Kaneville M. E. church officiating. Interment was in Blackberry cemetery.

VALENTINE HIEMENZ

Funeral services for Valentine A. Hiemenz, 70, of 779 Benton St., will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the Daleiden mortuary and at 9:30 o'clock at Sacred Heart church, the Rev. Fr. J. Halbmaier officiating. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Friends may call at the mortuary.

Mr. Hiemenz, who died Wednesday at St. Charles hospital, was born in Germany Jan. 10, 1880. He was a member of the Holy Name society of Sacred Heart church.

Surviving Mr. Hiemenz are his widow, Josephine; two brothers, Peter and Adam Hiemenz; a sister, Mrs. Susan Petersohn of Daytona Beach, Fla.; and several nieces and nephews. Another sister, Mrs. Margaret Blever, predeceased him in death Sept. 28.

* JOHN SCHNEIDER

John Schneider, 62, who lived in a bunk house behind the National Brush Co. factory, where he was employed, died early yesterday morning at St. Joseph Mercy hospital. Schneider was admitted to the hospital on Nov. 8, after suffering a paralytic stroke. An inquiry into the death was held today by Deputy Coroner Mrs. Mildred Pratt Conner. Funeral services will be held at the Healy chapel.

* GEORGE DEUTSCH

George Deutsch, 87, of 239 Kendall St., died Nov. 23. He was born in St. Clare, Pa., Jan. 19, 1863. He leaves no surviving relatives.

Until his retirement in 1946 he was employed as a painter and decorator. The funeral will be held at the Daleiden mortuary. The date and time will be announced later.

CASPER KETTENHOFEN

Casper Kettenhofen, 86, of 740 N. Lincoln Ave., died Nov. 23. He was born in Luxemburg, Jan. 12, 1864. He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

The funeral notice will be announced later. Friends may call at Daleiden's funeral home after 4 p. m. Saturday.

