

RE LIST LIGIBLES

(from page 1)

in the local board September and it is what they encounter the interruption in the inventory work this month."

ained, will be on out have been in-serve the public

In Writing
regular business," will be transacted and induction of seed as usual. Where the hearings or applications must be sent to the in the usual 10-day the regulations reach requests be in to be considered each registrant not by or telephone his ce but rather to peals, whichever the case may be. A registrant protects his interests far more by putting his claims in writing instead of making verbal statements at the local board office."

Obituaries

* GEORGE ERDIE

George Erdie, 61, died last night at his home, route 1, Batavia.

Mr. Erdie, who leaves no surviving relatives, was born in Rumania July 1, 1882.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock from the Daleiden mortuary. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Basil Marchis will officiate. Burial will be in St. Nicholas cemetery.

Friends may call at the mortuary after 4 o'clock this afternoon.

MRS. ANNA FELDOTT

Mrs. Anna Feldott, 82, of 149 North State street, died last night at St. Charles hospital.

Mrs. Feldott, who was born in Germany, March 21, 1861, is survived by one sister, Miss Elizabeth Selmarten; three nieces, Mrs. Mar-

Aurora, and U. S. Army Johnson field. Funeral announced at the Daleiden 9 o'clock this a

MATHIAS HASTER

Mathias Haster, pensioner of the Burlington, away last night Liberty street business.

Mr. Haster of Luxemburg, employed in the shop of the Burlington, 50 years un- years ago. the Burlington.

Surviving relatives, Mrs. P. Molitor, Mrs. Lena Haster son, John I 12 grandchild serving in the six great grand. Funeral services from the Daleiden 9 o'clock. Tuesday 9:30 o'clock

THE BRIGHTEST STAR ★ IN

Aurora Beacon-News, Sunday, 12 September 1943, p. 4