

It was the
 full works
 job quotas
 off re-
 eat many
 objects. Re-
 e job quota
 with heads
 ons.

he county
 little more
 the regis-
 increase in
 were 8,000
 these 2,000
 the quotas
 absorb some
 led to win

sistant di-
 artment of
 lonal re-
 state has
 impartial
 ovement of
 one com-
 wood's at-
 one of the
 with such a
 the best

10 Bail

22.—(P)— ee to carry
 oday after 000 for his
 piracy, em-
 otly made
 jury which
 the North-of Oswego who died last night at 11

 p. m. following a lingering illness, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Thorsen funeral home in Oswego, the Rev. Maurice Haehlen officiating.
 Mr. Darby was born April 7, 1853 on a farm east of Oswego and had resided in that vicinity during his entire life.

He is survived by one brother, Evis of Aurora; a niece, Mrs. Kathryn Holland of New York city; a nephew, Lawrence Briggs of Aurora.

Angela Garcia.

Angelo Garcia, 32, formerly of 402
 North Root street, passed away yesterday afternoon at Springbrook sanitarium, where he had lived for the last three years. The remains have been removed to the Downs funeral home.

Marguerite Heap.

Marguerite Heap, 32, daughter of

FORM, $10,110.00.

SA route 24, 4.56 miles
 surface course, SEE rot Aurora, Stanley Jaicka
 Ill., $27,259.01.

SA route 15, 3.70 miles
 surface course from SE Lorain in Stephenson co
 Rocho, Freeport, $36,371

SA route 12, 3.49 miles
 surface course from pol route 89 west, Wood
 Berenz & Son, Bloom
 382.01.

Granted Patents.—

been granted at Washin Barber, of Aurora, for
 and to James E. Bates,
 for a compartment box.

Santa Claus depen
 Empty Stocking fund
 remember youngsters
 homes.

GIFTS for HIM

Gift Specie
Men's Pre-shrur
BROADCLO
SHIRTS

White, plain colors
 and fancies, gift $
 boxed—