

Obituaries

* WILBUR LLOYD

Wilbur Lloyd, 65, of 361 North Lincoln Ave., died last night at St. Charles hospital following a lingering illness.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Branch funeral home. Interment will be in the Township cemetery.

A. EDWIN CHASE

A. Edwin Chase, 75, of 427 Watson St., died yesterday at Copley Memorial hospital. Mr. Chase was born April 16, 1875 in Holmes, O.

Surviving him are his widow, Martina; two daughters, Irene Chase of Aurora and Mrs. Lillian Brauer of DeKalb; and three grandchildren, Barbara, Keith and Nancy Brauer, all of DeKalb.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Healy chapel, the Rev. O. J. Johnson officiating. Interment will be in the Millington-Newark cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel.

REPORT USE

OF INFORMATION

To Receive
Sanctuary soda
Good Counsel
holy communice
at the 8 o'clock

Correction. I
Frigidaire elec
vertised this w
Home Co., I
should have re
shown DM-90
$189.75.—Adv,

C-46 Crashes
apolis, May
twin engine Ca wooded area
berlain airbase
said there was 23 passengers
lives were lost.

Hamsters. Pl

Country Fair
will be held at tomorrow, start
der the joint Scout Troop 24

UNCH TACK CRATS

5 (P) —
of political
nists-in-gov-
ew peak to-launching administra-
erry of Ne-
loor leader,
ie timetable
e-stop tour
ns Sunday.
he President
department s investigat-
seph R. Mc-
the agency nionists and y because eople with ecy."
ay of New