vated steel storage tank, has already been let and plans for the remaining units are nearing completion under the direction of Commissioner Wilbur E. Barclay, head of the local water works department.

Kicked by Horse, Stable Hand Is Dead of Injuries

* James Meyers, 61, of Chicago, a stable hand at Exposition park, died at St. Joseph Mercy hospital at 7 o'clock last night from injuries received a week ago when he was kicked by one of the horses in his charge.

Meyers was employed by the Coughlin stable, which has several horses quartered at the track where the spring racing season will open May 1.
The stable is owned by Alderman
"Bath House" John Coughlin of Chicago.

The body was removed to the George M. Boyle funeral home, where an inquiry will be conducted by Deputy Coroner W. A. Keiser of Geneva.
Funeral arrangements have not been completed.
