

death of Mrs. James Burke, 69, mother of the Rev. James Burke of St. Mary's Church, Polo, Ill. Mrs. Burke had been residing with her son at the rectory, at the time of her death.

Burial will be in Chicago Tuesday at 11 a.m., at Our Lady Help of Christian Church.

CONRAD PETERSON

Mr. Conrad Peterson, 68, of the Hotel Aurora died Thursday while a patient at the St. Joseph Mercy

Sunday, southern fried chicken.

The lunch stand will be open all day with hamburgers, hot dogs, barbecues, pie, ice cream, pop, and coffee.

This year the exhibits at the ladies fair are open to everyone so it is hoped there will be an exceptionally big display of baking, sewing, canned goods and children's products.

Saturday at 11 a.m. there will be games and races for the chil-

Good dren
a ch
Sun
Unio
Harv
er v ducti
Com
chur
Th prize

S
E
D

First 0
Week Sp

Prices Good

THE PERFECT MEAL - Y

D O S E