

Calif.; two brothers, Leonard Eys and Hemming of Park Falls, and three grandchildren.
was preceded in death by his
s. John and Julia Carlson and father, Norman Carlson.
There will be no visitation.
Contributions in Mr. Carlson's memory may be made to Geneva Methodist Church.

Walter A. Bahr

Walter A. Bahr, 77, of West Chicago, died Wednesday in Sandhaven Nursing Home in Sandwich. He was born Nov.
19, 1899, in West Chicago.

Bahr worked on a farm for 25 years in the West Chicago area and was also employed by the Chicago and North Western Railroad Co.

Surviving are six sisters, Mrs. Harry Moebs of Aurora, Mrs. Hazel Hofmann of West Chicago, Mrs. Clyde H. Owens of Missouri, Mrs.
Josephine Lothstein of Batavia, Mrs. Paul H. Thoma of Lombard and Mrs. Albert (Grace) Stark of West Chicago; three brothers, Rannalt and Harold, both of West Chicago and Harold of Sterling; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Herman and Anna Bahr and brothers, Ethel Wurtz and Marjorie

William, James, Gordon and Logan Barr.

Funeral services and burial will be in Avon Lake, Ohio Friday.

* Paul Peterson

Paul Peterson, 67, of Aurora, died Tuesday at Mercy Center Hospital.

Mr. Peterson was born Feb. 19, 1910, in Chicago. He was a lab technician for the Morris Paper Mill in Morris.

Mr. Peterson is survived by two brothers, Robert of Lake Worth, Fla., and George of Seattle, Wash.

He was preceded in death by five brothers and a sister.

Funeral services will be at 11:30 a.m. Friday at the Wayside Cross Rescue Mission, with the Rev. Paul Johnaber officiating.

Burial will be in the Aurora Township Cemetery.

Visitation will be at the mission from 9 a.m. Friday until the funeral hour.

Arrangements were made by the Dieterle Memorial Home.

Frances Allaben

A former Plano resident, Mrs.
Frances (Lord) Allaben, 88, of Long Beach, Calif., died Wednesday at Shea Convalescent Home in Long Beach.

Mrs. Allaben was born Feb. 14, 1889, in Plano. She was a graduate of the support

WASHINGTON (UPI)—
Gerald Ford and Ronald Reagan were the beneficiaries of the big spender in the 1976 presidential campaigns.

Figures released today
by the Federal Election Commission showed that two Republican rivals received 83 per cent of a campaign money spent by individuals in the presidential race.

Individual expenditure

Corcoran will meet residents

Rep. Tom Corcoran
R-15th, will hold a series of meetings with constituents during the April break in the Congressional session.

Corcoran, of Ottawa, said the meetings will