

rrville

Public
sual

23.—William
street, one
own citizens,
ure time in
s his pride
experiments,
uch success
a novelty in
at blossoms
ooms which
d then blue.
pods form
arger until
white cotton
in October,
able. These n intact for

ton each year to make many large bouquets which very attractively decorate his home during the winter.

Mr. Vogel invites his friends and neighbors to view this unusual sight in his garden during the next few weeks.

Glen D. Robinson Passes, Aged 49

Glen D. Robinson, 49, 310 South Broadway, died at 12:40 o'clock Friday morning at Copley hospital.

He was born Dec. 23, 1890, at Taylorville, Ill. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. M. E. Moffett, of Seattle, Wash.; his father, J. S. Robinson of Poplar, Mont.; three sisters; two brothers; two sons and one daughter at Saskatchewan, Canada; three daughters and one son at Normal, Ill.

Funeral services will be announced later.

volumes of
and literary
volumes deal
ican politics
have been
l. His latest open in Nor-

PLANTATION

**?

