on getting proper uniforms and equipment for the militia, and we have also disagreed on matters of policy. This would appear to be a retaliatory action."

Asserting that the only word he had of the announcement came to him from newspapers, General Cihnin said. "I don't care for the manner in which it was done, but an order is an order with me. I still don't like to think of being pushed out because Boyle didn't like me."

He charged that Boyle "is inexperienced in matters concerning the handling of troops," adding "I've had to fight for every bit of equipment the militia now has"

Thompson said. "You can always step nimbly aside, or climb a tree, but you can't dodge shrapnel."

"Getting gassed is not as bad as stopping a piece of shrapnel. You can recover from the effects of gas without a scar. Shrapnel will always leave its mark if you recover."

To demonstrate how you can stay out of the way of a gas attack he blew a puff of smoke from his cigaret in the air, noted that the wind was blowing from behind his back, pointed to a spot directly in front of his feet, and said, "if a Lewisite bomb had burst there, I would just as leave stand here and spit in it."

U. S. Now Has 80,000,000 Voters

Washington, April 7.—(AP)—The United States, which turned out a record-breaking total of 49,815,312 votes for the 1940 presidential elections, has a potential vote of approximately 80,000,000.

The census bureau made this estimate today after an analysis of the last census showed that on April 1, 1940, there were 79,863,451 citizens, 21 years or older. However, the bureau added that this total is only theoretical since the number of eligible voters always depends on many other restrictions, including registration laws, residence requirements, poll taxes, disqualifications for the insane and felons.

The number of potential voters, however, is increasing much faster than the total population, due to the increase proportion of adults and to the declining percentage of aliens.

Of the potential voters, 59.4 per cent lived in towns or cities of 2,500 or larger.

Of the total potential voters, 40,111,435 were men and 39,752,016 women, but in the decade the number of men in this group increased 17.7 per cent while the number of women increased 19.7 per cent.

7 until 7:30 p. m. Baptism is an almost universal experience, but how about the experience with the power of baptism? Where does baptism derive its power? How is it connected with the resurrection of Christ? Does Christ's resurrection merely lend a symbolism to baptism, or does it give a real power? Why must Christ's resurrection bring a daily meaning in our life? The Rev. W. G. Stallmann, pastor; the Rev. B. R. Lange, assistant pastor.

Alexander Stickel Relatives Sought

Efforts were being made by police today to locate relatives of Alexander Stickel, 46 of 148 South LaSalle street, who died at St. Charles hospital following a heart attack.

At an inquest, held at the George M. Boyle funeral home yesterday afternoon under the direction of Coroner L. Victor Peterson, of Elgin, it was learned that he had told Charles Norman, 114 Main street, and others that he had a sister residing in Detroit, but that he had informed Patrolman Louis Retterer at the hospital before his death that he had no living relatives. His landlady, Mrs. Ellen Keck, testified that she knew nothing of his family.

Stickel, who was formerly employed as a farm hand, registered under the alien registration act, his registration card revealing that he had been born in an unnamed community in Germany, Feb. 11, 1898 and that he had been in this country approximately 43 years. He had roomed at the residence of Mrs. Keck since February 10.

The warrant was sworn out by William J. Walsh, the school board president, who alleged Miss Fitzgerald had failed to cooperate with the board and that parents had complained of her discipline methods.
