

3

Yorkville Congregational Church, where she was choir director for many years. She

She was preceded in by her parents, the Re Mrs. E. W. Ward.

* Milton D. Kester

Funeral services for Milton D. Kester, 58, of Aurora, will be held Monday at 1:30 at the Dieterle Memorial Home. The Rev. W. David Dierks will officiate. Burial will take place at Aurora Township Cemetery. Friends may call at the memorial home today from 7 to 9 p.m.

Mr. Kester died Friday at Copley Memorial Hospital. He was born June 14, 1916, in New Veina, Ohio.

He is survived by four brothers, Robert of Scofield, Wis., Ormal of Dunseth, N.D., Charles of Jamestown, N.D. and William of Gleason, Wis.; and several nieces and nephews.

David Lee Oestry

Funeral services for Lee Oestry will be held day at 1:30 p.m. at Friedrich Funeral Home Naperville.

Burial will be at Clar Hills Cemetery in Darien

Mr. Oestry, 44, of I ville, died Friday in ville, Ind.

Friends may call at p.m. today at the ft home

Frank J. Curtis

Frank J. Curtis, 51, Charles died Satu evening at Central Di Hospital in Winfield.

Funeral arrangements being made by the M Funeral Home in Geneva

Mrs. Josie Cornwall

atkins of Monette, Ark. and searcy, Ark. Monday afternoon and evening.

William and Thomas Jarvis.

Private funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday from the Larson Funeral Home in Plano. The Rev. Harold Legant will officiate. Cremation will follow. There will be no funeral home visitation.

Joseph A. Tuftee

Joseph A. Tuftee, 74, of Sandwich, died Friday at Sandwich Community Hospital. He was born May 25, 1900, in Freedom Township, Ill.

He is survived by his widow, Dorothy (Gord) Tuftee; four sons, LaVerne of North Aurora, Robert of Somonauk, Joseph Jr. of Sandwich and Donald of Indiana; two daughters, Mrs. Verne (Darlene) Wruck and Mrs. Richard (Donna) Geisholt, both of Sandwich; a step-daughter, Mrs. Avery (Joyce) Stevens of St. Charles; 21 grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Leona (Kohler) in 1931; four brothers, a sister; his parents; a grandchild; and a great-grandchild.

Mr. Tuftee had farmed near

 Milton D. Kester

Milton D. Kester of Aurora, 58, died Friday at Copley Memorial Hospital. He was born June 14, 1916, in New Veina, Ohio.

He is survived by four brothers, Robert of Scofield, Wis.; Ormal of Dunseth, N.D.; Charles of Jamestown, N.D.; and William of Gleason, Wis.; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements are being made by the Dieterle Memorial Home where friends may call on Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Lillian Matlock

Mrs. Lillian Matlock of Yorkville died today at Aurora Manor in Aurora.

Funeral arrangements will be made by the Larson Funeral Home in Yorkville.

ses
Oct.
Osw
E hrs.
day.
Mar
Ill. -
Co
sider
& V
898-4
Po
$138
time
Aur
Frid
ment made open Insta album
C. chan
Mont
tense